A-B-C's Of Interacting with New Musicians

Age Appropriate Attitude
(and tone of voice)

Be Sensitive to Their Senses

Celebrate!

A-Act with an Age-Appropriate Attitude

(and tone of voice)

How do you sound?
Speed? Tone? Volume?

Your interactions with New Musicians should be similar to how you talk with your peers (but with a little more awareness and sensitivity).

Remember, they are most likely your age (or maybe older than you), attend the same school, listen to similar music, use social media, etc.

Of course, there are always exceptions

B - Be Sensitive to Their Senses

Sounds, smells, lights, and touches may feel or look different to your New Musician.

Get to know them and what they feel comfortable with BEFORE you give them that pat on the shoulder or back!

Be Sensitive to Your New Musician's Senses

C - Celebrate - Celebrate - Celebrate

Be animated!

Be silly!

Make your own group celebration dance!

Remember how you felt when you were first learning.
Praise always feels good!

Some of this is hard stuff for New Musicians.!

Celebrate!

This creates a bond

Your Feedback

Is Our Gift

"We all need people who will give us feedback. That's how we improve."

— Bill Gates

Let's chat about what's going good & what is stressing you out!
What happens with your Rehearsal Feedback Forms?

Before we end our meeting for the month, I would like some feedback from you!

Take a minute to write to me in the chat
about something you learned, or liked (or didn't), or any topic you would like us to address during our year!

Good Night!

See you on October 8th ~

Really, really, please email me if you have anything to ask or share after tonight's meeting
